GEORGE CATLETT DIED AT EDDYVILLE

Last Friday morning at 3 o'clock, after a short illness of flux, Mr. George Cat-lett, one of West Kentucky's best known men, died at his handsome home on "Mineral Mound Farm" between Eddy-ville and Kuttawa.

The deceased was forty three years of age and a man of prominent in public life. He was clerk of the branch penitentiary at Eddyville, also president of the Lyon county fair association, and in addition a prosperous and wealthy landowner. He married some years ago a Miss Powell, daughter of Governor Powell of Princeton, and leaves besides his widow, one daughter and two sons. His acquaintances here were not even aware of his illness hence his sudden death comes doubly shocking. Out of respect to him the Lyon county fair discontinued its meeting, although before his death Mr. Catlett insisted that the fair be continued. His untimely death is sincerely deplored here, where he numbered a legion of friends.

MISS TRABUE SERIOUSLY ILL.

Miss Letitia Trabue, daughter of Mr.

nourishment since that time that her tion in the case.

Miss Trabue has for several years been connected with the business office of the Courier-Journal and has many friends.
Her father was Robert Trabue.

Mrs. Trabue is a cousin of Mrs. R. W.
Wilson. Her daughter is a fine young woman and much beloved.

GRADUAL DECLINE

This is the fate of sufferers from Kidney trouble, as the disease is so insidious that often people have serious Kidney trouble without knowing the real cause of their illness, as diseased kidneys allow the impurities to stay in the system and attack the other organs. This accounts for the many different symptoms of Kidney Disease.

You begin to feel better at once when taking

as it stimulates the heart, increases the circulation and invigorates the whole system. It strengthens the urinary organs and gives you new life and vigor.

"YOUR MOTHER."

We have just received one of the most beautiful home songs that has of late come to this office. It is called "Your Mother," written by J. T. Rider. This is a song that every body ought to sing.

Dear friends can't you remember Away back in your youth,
One face, one voice, one hand you loved
The one who kissed you morning (best)
When from slumbers you awoke,
The one who lulled you evenings to your
Who was it told you stories (rest)
When you could not go out doors?
Who sang the songs that you loved best
Who was it found those toys for you And read your picture books?
Who was it taught you wisdom year by year?

CHORUS.

Why your mother, your own mother,
Such affection could come from no other
In sunshine or rain, in pleasure or pain
The one you loved best was your mother.

Have you preserved these memories
All thro' your after life,
And fully paid the debt you surely owe,
Have you always cared for mother,
As mother cared for you,
And never to her pleadings answered "no"?

Look well into your hearts, my friends,
And tell me if you can
That you have paid her all the reverence due?

For tho' the world forsake, you friends,
And everything is left,
Who is it that will still have faith in you?

A BAD BOY MADE GOOD.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—Jesse Beard, fifteen years old, a supposed incarriable, who was about to be sent to the Reform School, has become a model of behavior. A Probation Officer found a dent in the boy's head that was due to a fall. A surgical operation disclosed that a bony growth was pressing on the brain, and since the removal of this Beard's nature has changed completely.

Dragging Pains

2225 Keeley St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 3, 1902.

I suffered with dragging and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groins. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain.
What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maudie Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home.
The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.
